“Why I Want To Grow Up In Culver City” Essay Contest

Culver City Reads

The Culver City Friends of the Library invite you to participate in Culver City Reads, a community-wide reading fest to promote reading, education and literacy. The program encourages people of all ages to read the same book. The book selected for this year is “Peter Pan,” the timeless story of adventure and magic by J.M. Barrie. Throughout the next several months, the Friends will hold a series of events and activities revolving around Peter Pan designed to show children and adults alike how books come alive. The program will culminate in an “under the stars” screening of a popular Peter Pan movie at Veterans Park on Saturday, August 19, 2006!

The Essay Contest

One of the Culver City Reads activities is a “Why I Want To Grow Up In Culver City” essay contest. In 300 words or less, please tell us “Why You Want To Grow Up In Culver City.” Your essay can include why you like living, working, going to school, shopping, dining, and/or just having fun in Culver City.

There are five entry categories: 1) children grades 4-6 (school year 2006/2007); 2) children grades 7-9 (school year 2006-2007); 3) children grades 10-12 (school year 2006/2007); 4) adults (ages 18-54); and 5) seniors (age 55 and above). Six winners will be selected – one in each of the five entry categories and an overall winner for “Best Essay” – and awards will be announced and presented at the Fiesta La Ballona in Veterans Park on August 26 and 27, 2006 (exact date and time of award presentation to be determined). The “Best Essay” will be published in the Culver City News, a major sponsor of Culver City Reads.

Contest Entry Rules
